

Nokia C10

Make the most of me-time.

Key features:

Hugely reliable – with all day battery life¹ so you can access photos and play music online or offline, anywhere, anytime. It's loaded with the latest Android™ 11 (Go edition) features, but what you'll really love is that big screen, which will turn your commute into your favourite part of the day, as you catch up with the latest news or your favourite YouTube channel.

More me-time.

Between family and work, me-time is a precious thing. Nokia C10 can make it a little easier. With a battery that goes all day, you can carry on worry-free. Plus, an HD+ screen that's big and crystal clear, and ideal for watching videos.

The value of quality.

With its superior build quality and sleek Nordic design, the Nokia C10 is the result of rigorous testing and close attention to detail – even the casing has been ergonomically designed for a better grip.

Night, Camera, Action!

With LED flash on both front and rear cameras, you can capture all your special moments – even in low light.

Faster, smoother, safer.

An impressive phone needs an impressive and trustworthy operating system. Android 11 (Go edition) is exactly that, making it easier and quicker to open apps, store, find and share photos and videos. While the added security features keep everything safe.

Regular updates keep your secrets.

With two years of quarterly security updates, your files, videos, photos and data are always in the safest of hands.
